

St. Bonaventure University statement on new list that includes Fr. Gervase White

ST. BONAVENTURE, N.Y., April 10, 2019 — St. Bonaventure University officials said, according to its records, no instances of abuse had ever been reported against Fr. Gervase White, O.F.M., during his 47 years as an administrator and teacher at the university.

Fr. Gervase's name was listed on a report published this evening by WKBW.com. The report listed additional names of clergy who had allegations of abuse made against them while working in the Diocese of Buffalo.

"Officials at Holy Name Province have informed us that the abuse allegation against Fr. Gervase is being investigated. Until we know with certainty if this allegation is credible, we believe it's not appropriate to comment further on the case at this time," said Dr. Dennis R. DePerro, university president.

"That said, St. Bonaventure University remains steadfastly committed to zero tolerance for any form of sexual abuse or harassment — from students, faculty, staff or friars — and we will provide any support service necessary to those who have been victimized."
